SEE SAID SO—A lady from out of town was heard to say, "My husband gave me some money to go to Janesville and get me a silk dress and dolman with. He told me to look around and buy where I could the cheapest. I did so; I went into every dry goods store in the city with the following result: I bought 20 yards of black silk from Archie Reid 10 cents a yard cheaper than I could get it anywhere else, and on my dolman, I know I saved $40.00, sure. I just took those six dollars I saved, and bought my husband a nice Christmas present with it, and now I am happy."

IRREPLETS.

—Council to-night.

—Jack Frost put on his "fizzes" last night.

—The night for dancing school at Apollo hall.

—The Circuit Court adjourned, yesterday afternoon until to-morrow morning.

—Blank, who was convicted of manslaughter, will probably be sentenced to-morrow.

—The mild weather for the past few days has given the tobacco growers an excellent chance to take care of the lot.

—The Sexton-Snyder case was called up before Judge Patten yesterday afternoon, and for lack of witnesses adjourned until Monday next.

—A youthful violinist gave a street parade and open air concert to-day.

—He got along all right until he started "Gradfather's Clock." The boys wouldn't stand having that set to going again, and made him change his tune.

—Two socials this evening among the Methodists. The first church folk meet at Bauldell Williams' house, and the Court Street folk at the home of A. J. Lay. Visitors will find for themselves a hearty welcome at both places.

—The only comfort which tramps can see in the stone-yard system of punishment is that they get their hands so blistered and calloused by smashing stones, that when they get free, they can beg off from justices in other towns on the ground of being working men, and have their hands for proof.

—Gravel is being hauled for a roadway into the stone-yard, prepared next to the jail for the tramps. No stone has yet been placed in the yard, because teams could not drive in, and hence the stone-yard theory of punishment remains simply a theory. It would be a relief to the citizens to see it put to a practical test.

—The case of Bradley, of Beloit, charged with burglary, came up this afternoon in the Municipal Court, for the drawing of a jury and setting a day for trial. Bradley's claim for freedom on the ground of his having been arrested in Illinois and brought into this State without a requisition, seems to have had the bottom knocked from under it.

—A fellow giving the startling name of William Jones, was lodged in jail last night as a vagrant. He claimed to have walked most of the way from Chicago here, having been three days on the journey, and wanted to go north to get work in the pineries. This morning he showed his calloused hands to Judge Patten, as proof that he was used to work, and on the strength of these credentials was allowed to go free.

—The work of putting in the steam-heating apparatus at the Opera house is about completed, and by Friday a test will be made if the weather is cold enough to make any sort of a showing. It is expected that with this new apparatus the temperature can be kept comfortable, so that those attending entertainments can take off their outer wrappings, lay aside their mufflers and furs, leave their foot-stoves and hot bricks at home, and enjoy themselves. It will prove a happy change, and the public will feel duly grateful to Mr. Myers for it.

—There should be no lethargy about the Garfield memorial movement. Everyone should take a lively and practical interest in it, and the subscriptions should be handed in promptly and with no urging. Contributors can hand their subscriptions to James Sutherland, J. C. Metcalf, Stanley B. Smith, C. L. Valentine, or Webb & Hall. Janesville should take its full share in this worthy tribute.

—The present graduating class at the High School now numbers 25, it being the largest class in the history of the school. Of these 23, seven are boys, hardly large enough proportion, but still a showing of gain.

—Friday afternoon at the High School there will be exercises of interest, to which everybody is invited. The exercises will all be from Oliver Wendell Holmes' writings.

—FADED ON GRAY HAIR gradually recovers its youthful color and brilliancy by the use of Parker's Hair Balm, an elegant dressing, admired for its purity and rich perfume.

—Years of Suffering.

Mrs. Barnhart, cor. Pratt and Broadway, Buffalo, was twelve years a sufferer from rheumatism, and after trying every known remedy without avail, was entirely cured by Thomas' Electric Oil.

PREACHERS AND PEOPLE.

Their Delays at Their Gathering in Council Together.

The semi-annual meeting of the Beloit convention of the Congregational churches, is now in progress at the Congregational church in this city, having opened last night in pursuance of the announcement made.

Rev. J. Beardsley, of East Troy, the moderator of the last convention, called the gathering to order. Rev. H. W. Bushnell, of Beloit, led the devotional services, after which Rev. Mr. Beardsley preached an excellent sermon, his topic being "Christ as a Teacher."

The convention organized by the roll call, and the choosing of Rev. E. P. Salmon, moderator, and Mr. J. C. Plumb, of Milton, temporary clerk.

Rev. J. Beardsley, Rev. J. Collie, Delavan, and Deacon S. Brooks, of East Troy, were named as a business committee.

Adjournment was then taken until this morning.

This forenoon's programme opened with a business meeting. East Troy was chosen as the place of the next annual meeting.

A committee, consisting of Rev. J. Beardsley, Rev. J. Collie, and Rev. Newton Barrett, of Elkhorn, were named to arrange a programme for the next meeting.

The convention proper opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. H. S. Sanford.

Rev. F. B. Doe, superintendent of the "Home Mission" work in this State, made a statement concerning the needs of the work, and made an appeal in its behalf.

Rev. D. B. Jackson, of Emerald Grove, read an interesting and well-written paper, concerning the use of churches. After showing the time honored sacredness of the house set apart and consecrated to worship, and the need of care in determining the question of its use for other purposes, he outlined what he deemed a safe position. In his opinion the churches were to be used for religious worship, and other worthy purposes, tending to the uplifting and bettering of man. This opened a wide range for the patriotic, philanthropic, reformatory, educational and social meetings. To this use churches were especially necessary in rural towns where the church was often the only place available for such gatherings.

Rev. O. G. May, who was expected to open the discussion of "The duty of the churches in regard to temperance legislation," was not present this forenoon.

Mr. J. C. Plumb spoke briefly on the subject, and Mrs. Beale also made a few remarks, further discussion of the topic being postponed until afternoon, in the hope that Mr. May would be present.

The next topic was, "The prayer-meeting, how killed and how made alive," Rev. F. W. Hullinger, of Milton, gave a very spicy paper on this theme, and one full of practical thoughts and wise suggestions.

This afternoon the temperance issue was discussed by Rev. Dr. Chapin and others.

Among those present at the convention, are, Rev. J. Beardsley, East Troy; Rev. Geo. Bushnell, Beloit; Rev. J. Collie, Delavan; Rev. E. P. Salmon, Whitewater; Rev. D. B. Jackson, Emerald Grove; Rev. H. P. Higby, Beloit; Rev. D. Chapin, Beloit; Rev. D. D. Hill, Beloit; Rev. F. W. Hullinger, Milton; Rev. H. S. Sanford, Broadhead; Rev. Mr. Winslow, Beloit; Rev. E. B. Doe, Beloit; Rev. J. Russell, Stockbridge; J. W. Chamberlain, Beloit; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cook, Johnston; A. A. Keith, Deacon E. D. Clinton, Broadhead.

The ladies held a missionary meeting in the chapel this afternoon, at which Rev. Spencer Wells, and Mrs. Simons, returned missionaries, were present, and gave interesting talks.

The exercises close this evening.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY FREDERICK A. EVENSON, DRUGGIST.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 38 degrees above zero; at 1 o'clock a. m., at 19 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 27 degrees above, and 1 o'clock p. m. at 29 degrees above. Clear.

The indications to-day are, fair weather, westerly winds, stationary or lower temperature, and generally higher pressure.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Kate Kane, the lady lawyer, of Milwaukee, who commenced the practice of law here, was yesterday admitted to practice before the Supreme court.

—Chas. F. Slightam and family, of Madison, are visiting his brother, John Slightam, of the Gazette.

—Judge Druwiddie, of Monroe, is in the city to-day.

—Mrs. M. A. Armstrong, who has been visiting Mrs. John Watson, returned to Chicago to-day.

—Miss Hattie Calkins, of Milwaukee, who has been spending a time with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilcox, returned home to-day.

—Hon. Wm. Langer, of Waukesha, is stopping at the Pember house.

MILITIA MATTERS.

Captain H. A. Smith has sent in to the Governor a request for arms for the cadet corps. The Madison Journal says the arms will doubtless be granted.

□ In arranging for the inaugural ceremonies at Madison, a committee appointed for that purpose has requested Governor Smith to call out the companies of militia located at LaCrosse, Beaver Dam, Watertown, and Fond du Lac, to unite with the two Madison companies in a military display. The Governor has consented to issue the necessary order for the troops.

Alderman Tucker, Boston, says you may state that I have paid for medicine and treatment in 20 years $3,000, without receiving permanent benefit. Entirely cured of his disease (salt rheum) by Cuticura Remedies.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Remedies internally, and Cuticura Ointment externally. The most wonderful case on record.

AN EVIL PRACTICE.

To the Editor.

Would not this be a good time to call attention to a public evil which still exists among us. I have reference to the system of lotteries at church fairs, and I wish to be clearly understood as not aiming at any particular church or society. Our friends who have recently closed so successful a fair are no more to blame in this matter than the rest of us. There is perhaps not a church in the city that is prepared, according to the judgment rendered in another case, to "cast the first stone." We are all implicated in this matter. But it is not time, that we as a community should discourage this practice and set the seal of condemnation upon it. Is the excuse that we have been accustomed to give—that it is in a good cause—sufficient? Will it free us from the responsibility of the inevitable results? saying nothing about the fact that this practice is in direct violation of the laws of the State, and speaking only of its effect upon the community, the reasons are sufficiently strong to condemn it utterly. The effect upon the boy who gives ten cents or twenty cents to the church, and at the same time takes a chance in a lottery where he happens to draw an article worth five dollars or ten dollars, is perfectly clear. It fosters that tendency, already too strong in the American youth, to risk a small amount in the hope of realizing a much larger amount, even if the whole transaction is illegal. The boy becomes in after years cashier of a bank, or occupies some other place of public trust, and the temptation is strong upon him to risk a little of the money entrusted to his care for safe keeping, in hope of realizing a large amount for himself, and thus he is drawn into the vortex and hundreds are financially ruined with him. This is the natural legitimate result of the effect upon the boy who draws ten dollars worth for ten cents, or fifty dollars worth for twenty-five cents at a church lottery. And the evil is intensified because it is conducted by a church which should be held up as well as a religion. The argument is all on one side; let us use our individual influence against this practice—excuse me if the term is too plain—of church gambling.

Feeble Ladies.

These laundried, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the blood from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful; can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?
